FRIDAY: JUNE 11, 1855.

THE Times for the efforts of the K. N. editors to assail James Buchanan has been ineffectual. His record has been most critically examined. And what has been the result of this restless inquiry? We find the K. N. journals filled with lengthy comments on a single isolated act of his boyhood. A speech made by James Buchanan in 1815 is made the subject of severest criticism and denunciation. But we call upon you to examine the record of Mr. Buchanan's public life. It will be remembered that Mr. Buchanan took his seat in the Senate in 1834, and occupied it till the close of 1845. In 1836 the question for the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia came up for discussion in the Senate of the United States, and Mr. Buchanan, being one of the leaders of the Democratic party, said in reply to a petition which came from the North: "What is now asked by these memorialists? That in this district of ten miles square a district seceded out of two slaveholding States, and surrounded by them on all sides, slavery shall be abolished! What would be the effects of granting that? You would then have to erect a cincture of free States, and a territory which they have ceded to you for a different purpose, from which Abolitionists and Seceders could securely attack the peace and safety of their citizens. You establish a spot of refuge for runaway slaves. You create by law a central point from which trains of gun powder may be sent to the slaveholding States, which at any moment may produce a fearful and destructive explosion." By passing such a law you introduce the enemy into the very bosom of these two States, and afford him every opportunity to produce a servile insurrection. Is there any reasonable man who can for one moment suppose that Virginia and Maryland would have ceded the District of Columbia to the United States? If they had, they would have retained the slightest idea that Congress would ever use it for any such purpose. They ceded it for your use, for your convenience, and not for their own destruction. WHEN SLAVERY CEASES TO EXIST UNDER THE LAWS OF VIRGINIA AND MARYLAND, THEN, AND NOT TILL THEN, OUGHT IT TO BE ABOLISHED IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

Are these the views of an Abolitionist, as the editor of the Journal and other Know-Nothing papers would have the people of Kentucky believe that Mr. Buchanan is? What stronger position could any man take than Mr. Buchanan did in 1835? He said emphatically: "Under the Constitution, the Southern States have rights guaranteed to them, and these rights I am determined to maintain, come weal, come woe."

Strong, bold, fearless, independent language! He spoke like a man whose heart was overflowing with love for the Union, the Constitution and the people. And yet this gallant and venerable old statesman, who in the Senate of the United States defended so nobly the rights of the South, is now to be branded as an Abolitionist by an unscrupulous press. If, in the face of facts, Know-Nothing Journals, or Know-Nothing orators, can prove that James Buchanan is an Abolitionist, then the Democratic Electors on the part of the State, will commence the canvass on the 17th. He is one of the most eloquent speakers in the State, and our friends should give him the workhouse in the morning.

THE difference between Democracy and Know-Nothing was strikingly illustrated last night. It was the difference between gently propriety and decorum and blackguard rowdiness.

It will be seen from the list of appointments another column, that Hon. John W. Stevenson, one of the Democratic Electors on the part of the State, will commence the canvass on the 17th. He is one of the most eloquent speakers in the State, and our friends should give him the workhouse in the morning.

The Board of School Trustees—a body composed entirely of Know-Nothings, met on Tuesday night and elected Wm. F. Harney Principal of the Male High School vice W. W. Harney Reason for the change—Mr. Harney is a Democrat.

There is something new in the Episcopal Church. It is the first instance we have ever heard of an Episcopal clergyman carrying politics into the sacred desk. He richly deserves to have his gown stripped from his back, and to be sent back to penance and his prayers:

Andrew J. James, of Somerset, is a candidate for Circuit Judge in his District. He is a zealous Democrat—an educated and able lawyer—and one of the most modest and amiable gentlemen in the State. He is very popular, and we hope and believe he will be elected. Most certainly, no better man can be found in the District.

The Board of School Trustees—a body composed entirely of Know-Nothings, met on Tuesday night and elected Wm. F. Harney Principal of the Male High School vice W. W. Harney Reason for the change—Mr. Harney is a Democrat.

There was an immense Democratic Barbecue and mass meeting at Little Eagle, Scott county, last week. Messrs. Jas. B. Beck, Thos. P. Porter, F. Troutman, Geo. B. Hodge, Schuyler Garfield and O. P. Hogan, made speeches. It is a significant fact that four of these speakers—the first mentioned—were formerly prominent Whigs.

SIGNS.—The Georgia Union says, "we believe we approximate very near the truth when we give it as our candid opinion that fully 20,000 old line Whigs in Georgia will vote for the nominees of the National Democratic party."

FROM GARRARD COUNTY, LANCASER, KY., July 1856.

MESSRS. BULLOCK & NOBLE: In our county and the surrounding counties the Democracy is gaining ground. We will give a larger Democratic vote in Garrard than ever was given at our November election. We have been notified that we will have speakers here from the secret order from this time almost until the August election, by Roger Hanson, George Robertson, &c. They are contending hard for the Whigs of Garrard that have not gone into the order. We were notified that a certain Mr. Rankin, the elector from the 10th district, would make a Know Nothing speech at the Court House two or three o'clock this evening. According to appointment he came fourth, and was introduced to the audience by Wm. Bonham, a K. N. of no ordinary standing. The audience numbered about two hundred voters at the beginning, and when he ended about one hundred. He spoke three hours. He was slow, and dull, and he labored the Catholic question with the same obstinacy with which he labored the question of the slaves. The preacher continued his discourse without making the interruption, and at the conclusion of his sermon, respectfully suggested to the gentleman who had interposed his objections to point out the wrong which he had committed in using the Sabbath as the time and an Episcopal pulpit as the place for the utterance of anti-slavery sentiments.

Mr. Tyng suggested, too, that it would have been as well to have waited until he had convinced his remarks before interposing any objection to them. If he (Mr. T.) was wrong, he was open to correction, but he would as a minister of Christ express his views of the most exciting topic of the day. Mr. Tyng was perfectly at ease through the entire speech, and the audience appeared to be perfectly unmoved during the decided sensation incident to the interruption of Dr. Morris. We should state that at the commencement of the remarks of Mr. Tyng several members of the congregation left the church. The sermon was finished, the members of the congregation gathered in knots to discuss the unusual event, and then they congratulated the minister upon the decided stand he had taken. We understand that the master will refer to the Bishop of the Diocese.

PHIL. BULLARD, June 30.

EXCITEMENT ON CANAL STAIRS.—Mar. 27.—At about 3 o'clock yesterday Canal stairs, in front of J. Burnside's mammoth store, was a scene of wild excitement. It appears that high words were exchanged between W. G. Kendall and the Rev. Mr. John Marshall, who had just come from a meeting of the American Colonization Society. Kendall, in his great oration, had rebuked and put down that from one-third to one-half the order presented before he was through with his speech, and many of them expressed their dissatisfaction at his effort. The Democrats and old line Whigs were well pleased, and wished for more speech. The Rev. Mr. John Marshall, who had greatly modified his oration, at least so far as it concerned the slaves, had made his speech, the Democrats and Whigs thought it best to have no reply, as the order was badly disappointed.

Andrew Jackson James, Pulaski county, is a candidate for Judge in this District, and will be elected.

AN OLD LINE WHIG.

as the people of the Ancient Dominion themselves. To have pursued a different course in my native State would, therefore, have been to resist the strong current of enlightened public opinion."

Our only request in behalf of the Democratic party is, that the people of Kentucky will take the time and pains to carefully examine the political record of Mr. Buchanan. We are in all sincerity perfectly satisfied that the investigation will result in the conviction that our venerable candidate is above, and beyond reproach.

We will conclude this article by presenting again to our readers the celebrated Erie letter of Mr. Fillmore, which has not been denied by the most unblushing advocates of Mr. Fillmore. This letter was written from Buffalo, N. Y., the 7th Oct. 1838. In comparing the actions of Messrs. Buchanan and Fillmore, we ask the people to remember the dates. Read the letter, and judge as honest men who love the Constitution and the Union.

BUFFALO, Oct. 17, 1838.

SIR: Your communication of the 15th instant, as chairman of the committee appointed by the anti-slavery society of the county of Erie, has just come to hand. You solicit my answer to the following interrogatories:

1. Do you believe that petitioning Congress on the subject of slavery, and the slave trade ought to be received, read, and respectfully considered by the representatives of the people?

2. Are you in favor of the annexation of Texas to the Union, under any circumstances, so long as slaves are there held?

3. Are you in favor of Congress exercising all the Constitutional powers it possesses to abolish the internal slave trade between the States?

4. Are you in favor of immediate legislation for the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia?

5. Are you engaged, and have no time to enter into argument, or explain at length my reasons for my opinions. I shall, therefore, content myself for the present by answering ALL YOUR INTERROGATORIES in the AFFIRMATIVE, and leave for some future occasion a more extended discussion of the subject.

MILLARD FILLMORE.

After the Democratic meeting the large crowd repaired to the Galt House to greet Major Breckinridge. Several thousand persons had already assembled in front of the Hotel on Main street in anticipation of the event.

At repeated calls Major Breckinridge appeared upon the platform in front of the Ladies parlors, and was greeted with tremendous cheers. It would be impossible to report the eloquent thanks which he returned for the flattering demonstration. He then reverted briefly to the political condition and the facts with which it is distracted. All he said was uttered with the modesty and delicacy that became his distinguished position.

It was the first time the Democracy ever heard this eloquent son of Kentucky, but every word that fell from his lips thrilled through their hearts, and added to the admiration they already felt for him.

After a few remarks from Col. Preston, during which he administered a well merited rebuke to the rowdies who attempted to interrupt the meeting, the large crowd quietly dispersed.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING LAST NIGHT.

A large meeting of the Democracy took place last night at Democratic Hall, (previous to their call upon Maj. Breckinridge,) and Col. W. Preston, Dr. J. A. B. Binkinridge, and Col. W. Reddick, were present. Mr. Crampton was certain not the man to send as Minister to the United States.
